

Who: Anna Baltzer, Jewish-American granddaughter of Holocaust refugees and volunteer for the International Women's Peace Service; Human rights worker & supporter of Palestinian-led nonviolent resistance to Occupation.

What: Her slides, stories, & book Witness in Palestine, recounting first-hand experiences with the conflict while living with Palestinians in the West Bank.

When/Where: PEACEMAKING WORKSHOP XXII – Lincoln, Nebraska

- Friday, April 3
 - 1:00 pm – “Conflict & Peacemaking in Israel / Palestine: A Historic Overview”
 - Nebraska Wesleyan University (5000 St. Paul Ave.), Miller Chapel, Old Main Building
 - 7:00 pm -- “Life in Occupied Palestine: Eyewitness Stories & Photos”
 - First United Methodist Church (50th Street & St. Paul Ave.)
- Saturday, April 4
 - 8:30 am – “The Next Step: Taking Action for Peace with Justice in Israel/Palestine!”
 - First Mennonite Church (7300 Holdrege)

The Peacemaking Workshop is an annual ecumenical gathering to share perspectives and foster discussion and action on peacemaking, justice, and conflict transformation.

more info: www.fmclincoln.org/peacemaking_workshop/2009 or 402-466-1906